Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy: To the church and the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I always thank God with mention of you constantly in our prayers. I recall, in the presence of our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor motivated by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you because our gospel did not come to you in word only but also in power, in the Holy Spirit, and with full assurance. You know how we lived among you for your benefit, and you yourselves became imitators

The Holy Spirit. As a result, you became an exam

1 THESSALONIANS

we don't need to say anything, for they themselves report what kind of reception we had from you. Now you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead — Jesus who rescues us from the coming wrath. For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit with you was not without result. On the contrary, after we had previously suffered and were treated outrageously in Philippi as you know, we were emboldened by our God to speak the gospel of God to you in spite of this. Our exhortation didn't come with an intent to displease anyone, but rather God, who examines our hearts. We are not ashamed of our gospel, so we speak, not to please people, but rather God, who examines
